NOTICE

It has come to our attention that there have been instances of individuals playing in the ground without proper permission from the Directorate. We would like to remind everyone that the ground is a designated area for sports activities and any unauthorized use can lead to safety hazards and interfere with scheduled events.

Therefore, we would like to inform all students/staff and outside stakeholders that nobody is allowed to play in the ground without proper permission from the Directorate. Any individual found violating this rule will be subject to disciplinary action.
