NOTICE

It has come to our attention that there have been instances of Teaching and Non-Teaching employees of University playing in the ground without prior permission from the Directorate. Ground as library and laboratories is a designated area for sports activities and any unauthorized use can lead to safety hazards and interfere with scheduled events.

Therefore, we would like to inform all Teaching and Non-Teaching employees of University of Kashmir that nobody is allowed to play in the ground without prior permission from the Director, Directorate of Physical Education & Sports. Any individual from outside the University found violating the rule will also be subject to disciplinary action.
